Amy J. Banovich
Partner

Background
Amy is an Audit partner, located in our Seattle office. She has over 20 years of public accounting experience, entirely focused in the healthcare, health insurance, and not-for-profit industries.

Professional and Industry Experience
Amy spends 100 percent of her time on healthcare, health insurance, and not-for-profit engagements. She serves as the partner on a wide variety of audit engagements in these industries, including governmental hospitals, multi-hospital health systems, community hospitals, physician groups, licensed insurers and other not-for-profit organizations.

Amy is experienced in financial statement audits, public bond offerings, agreed-upon procedures, and Single Audits. Her financial reporting experience includes GAAP, GASB reporting, and statutory reporting for insurance entities.

Amy is involved in firm wide healthcare industry activities including the development of training topics and instruction at KPMG’s national healthcare and insurance training sessions. In addition, she is involved in firm wide strategic initiatives around the retention and advancement of women.

Professional Associations
Amy is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Washington Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the Healthcare Financial Management Association.
